

Love Yourself

Julianne Hough

Can't believe he took the coward's way out and did it over the phone
If you ask me when it comes to him you're better off alone
I hate to see my best friend feeling like a dead end
Thinking she was born to lose I wish you could love yourself
Oh, I wish you could love yourself
The way that I do He never really knew the side of you that your friends all love
You gotta be who you are 'cuz who you are is more than enough
There isn't any doubt, inside and out
Your beauty comes shining through
I wish you could love yourself
Oh, I wish you could love yourself
The way that I do Oh, I wish you could love yourself
Yeah, I wish you could see you
The way that I see you I wish you could love yourself
Oh, I wish you could see you
The way that I see you
I wish you could love yourself
Oh, I wish you could love yourself
The way that I do
Oh yeah, oh yeah
