

Matter of Time

Fitness

They say there ain't seasons in LA
They've never seen the sunlight play across your face
Oxblood Mustang, maybe '68
Some bitch got jealous, tagged it up with black spray paint. Every time I go, I come back, I come back don't you know
Hey baby it's just a matter of time
Every time I dream of you I wake up next to someone new Hey baby it's just a matter of time So high I couldn't even take a sip
Of my Code Red Mountain Dew, guess that dates us a bit
In the ivy underneath the 5
We kissed like hypocrites inside our double lives
Every time I go, I come back, I come back don't you know
Hey baby it's just a matter of time
Every time I dream of you I wake up next to someone new Hey baby it's just a matter of time Time time time time time
Time time time time
Time time time time time
Time time time time
Every time I go, I come back, I come back don't you know
Hey baby it's just a matter of time
Every time I dream of you I wake up next to someone new
Hey baby it's just a matter of time
Hey baby it's just a matter of time
Hey baby it's just a matter of time
Hey baby it's just a matter of time
