The shock was fast
Shock, fast
The shock was fastBlown cover.
Break. Fix.
Dead computer.
Up to speed and then rewinding
Up another grade.I'm testing all circuits to see if they all work
I'm throwing on all switches to see which ones don't work
The shock was fast
Shock, fast
The shock was fastBlood sucker.
Fat lip.
Silver bullet.
Now I need a part to hide in.
Now I need a play.I'm testing all circuits to see if they all work
I'm throwing on all switches to see which ones don't workWish that I could leave my room tonight
The fast attack on my compressor's way too bright.
Think I got the threshold on too tight.
Just restart and hope that everything will be alright.
Mail off the rebate and send it to me.
It's running itself out.
Feel like a two-fer
Let's repair the machine
It's wearing itself out.It feels like it could just go on forever.
