

Nobody's In Love

2AM Club

She took control, pushed me on the wall
Took me in the stall told me, "Give me what I want"
I just can't, okay I just might, yeah
I'm just saying, she hit the bathroom lights
Pressed her hands up on the tiles like, ahh
Put her skirt in my hands and told me just watch
High-heel walk through a spilled-drink floor
Can't tell what I want but I think it's more
So I wait for your eyes
I was reading your plays
Put a light to my smoke with a shotgun kiss
Find your lips through the haze
With a twist in my glass, baby
And you whisper your name
Don't worry the sun don't concern me
The flame is a one night thing
Baby, loving the way you take me
Nobody here's gon' break me
Nobody here's in love
Baby, loving the way you take me
Nobody here's gon' break me
Nobody here's in love
She took her clothes put them on hold
Saw an X on her hand she's looking for the soap
First I wouldn't go, now I'm in the cold
Parking garage with her hands on my soul
Oh, no, I'm going home
Her vicious lips feel like a razor blade poem
Razor blade eyes, tan colored thighs
A girl with a spine and a man on the side
So I wait for your eyes
I was reading your plays
Put a light to my smoke with a shotgun kiss
Find your lips through the haze
With a twist in my glass
And you whisper your name
Don't worry the sun don't concern me
The flame is a one night thing
Baby, loving the way you take me
Nobody here's gon' break me
Nobody here's in love
Baby, loving the way you take me
Nobody here's gon' break me
Nobody here's in love
Baby, loving the way you take me
Nobody here's gon' break me
Nobody here's in love
Baby, loving the way you take me
Nobody here's gon' break me
Nobody here's in love
Calling all the lovers
Late night under covers, you too
(I believe in the night I'm leaving when I like)
Raise your cups and glasses

Hope for real romance to come true
(Make a toast to the vandals)
(Make the most of your love for the scandal)But put your thoughts together
Love don't equal pleasure every night
(She equals risk, take that arrow, please don't miss)
I'm not knowing better
Just admit your game ain't quite right
(We all fall for the same tricks)
(Let the music play and let me say this)Baby, loving the way you take me
Nobody here's gon' break me
Nobody here's in loveBaby, loving the way you take me
Nobody here's gon' break me
Nobody here's in loveBaby, loving the way you take me
Nobody here's gon' break me
Nobody here's in loveBaby, loving the way you take me
Nobody here's gon' break me
Nobody here's in love
