Song of the South

Alabama

Song, song of the south

Sweet potato pie and I shut my mouth

Gone, gone by the wind

There ain't nobody looking back againCotton on the roadside, cotton in the ditch

We all picked the cotton but we never got rich

Daddy was a veteran, a southern democrat

They ought to get a rich man to vote like thatSing itSong, song of the south

Sweet potato pie and I shut my mouth

Gone, gone by the wind

There ain't nobody looking back againWell somebody told us Wall Street fell

But we were so poor that we couldn't tell

Cotton was short and the weeds were tall

But Mr. Roosevelt's a gonna save us all

Well momma got sick and daddy got down

The county got the farm and they moved to town

Papa got a job with the TVA

He bought a washing machine and then a ChevroletSing itSong, song of the south

Sweet potato pie and I shut my mouth

Gone, gone by the wind

There ain't nobody looking back againPlay itSing itSong, song of the south

Sweet potato pie and I shut my mouth

Gone, gone by the wind

There ain't nobody looking back againSong, song of the south

Gone, gone with the wind

Song, song of the south

Sweet potato pie and I shut my mouth

Song, song of the south

Sweet potato pie and I shut my mouthSing itSong, song of the south

Sweet potato pie and I shut my mouth

Gone, gone by the wind

Ain't nobody looking back againSong, song of the south

Sweet potato pie and I shut my mouth

Gone, gone by the wind

Ain't nobody looking back againSong, song of the south

Sweet potato pie and I shut my mouth
