

Change (feat. DigDat)

Deno

Mama told me that she love me 'till the day I die.
I've seen her go through so much pain so I can never lie
But it's about to change, this is our only life
I'm 'bout to buy houses on houses 'bout a hundred times
I know she will always love me 'till the day he comes
So we don't care 'bout no figures or no paigons
Yeah, it's about to change, yeah I can see my face and it's in her eye, yeah
Young and I'm turnt, plus I came out the gutter
These slugs will burn, kept it on me all summer
Conversating with my nigga 'bout the come up
He said never trust them 'cause they don't really love us
I been throught it all, that's what made me
Mummy used to warn us 'bout them snakes when she raised me
Thousands on my jewels, I can't let a nigga take these
She just gave me top, now I get her tryna claim me
Nots in my hair, head's picky like some Rugrats
My life's not Gucci, thirty in this rucksack
Cookies out the pow, now I'm smoking from this runs pack
Hit her on the gas, I can never take my block back
When it's time to rave they would drive, they're some half-hearts
Call you, time to ride, now let's see how fast that car starts
Nights in them cells, I lost sleep 'cause of stress
Dreamin' 'bout death, how's my G's meant to rest?
Mama told me that she love me 'till the day I die
I've seen her go through so much pain so I can never lie
But it's about to change, this is our only life
I'm 'bout to buy houses on houses 'bout a hundred times
I know she will always love me 'till the day he comes
So we don't care 'bout no figures or no paigons
Yeah, it's about to change, yeah
I can see my face and it's in her eye, yeah.
I can see my face, she used to always ask me what I'm looking at
I was talkin' to the mirrors, I'm a mirror man
Didn't never have a care in the world for me
Now they see me on the streets, can I get a picture now?
Catch fakes, I'm a fisherman
Never move booky, why you movin' boujee?
Fuck you and your groupie
Changed over Gucci
I was a kid in school dreaming of the Gucci
I came with my chain on me, bought my watch, it's buss down How these niggas change on me?
It's all hard to trust now

Nowadays I like to lay low, made you where your mate go
Do it 'cause I say so, run me up my pesos
I got these cheques on me, I can't stop like go-go
Never thought you'd switch on me, that was like my bro-bro
Mummy used to say to me, "why your jeans so low?"
Pull up when they don't know.
Mama told me that she love me 'till the day I die
I've seen her go through so much pain so I can never lie
But it's about to change, this is our only life
I'm 'bout to buy houses on houses 'bout a hundred times
I know she will always love me 'till the day he comes
So we don't care 'bout no figures or no paigons Yeah, it's about to change, yeah
I can see my face and it's in her eye.
Mama told me that she love me 'till the day I die
But it's about to change, this is our only life
I know she will always love me 'till the day he comes
Yeah, it's about to change, yeah
I can see my face and it's in her eye, yeah

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>