

Mr President

Kylie Minogue

Oh. Mr President! Get a tie, get a suit and tie guy
He work me from 9-5
Come home make me go na-night
Got me so high I'm seeing sky
Big man he handle his business
Everyday be like Christmas
Pressing on my lips
It used to feel good and I'm the misses Hey just know I understand
The world is in your hands
But all your love love love is for me
They're falling at your feet
They chase you down the street
But I'm all you wa-wa-want
So hey, hey Mr. President
You're such a gentlemen
It's such an honor to meet ya
Hey, hey Mr. President
I'll be ya Marilyn
And baby I'll never leave ya
I'm at your mercy now
Just tell me how I can please ya
Hey, hey Mr. President
I'll be ya Marilyn
And baby I'll never leave ya
Ohhh Mr President! Hey Mr President
And baby And baby
Oh Mr President
And baby And baby
Oh Mr President
Caviar on summer sunrise
I feel so good by his side
Want me to paradise with him
Champagne is a modern life
Black cups, and dress have been my right
Make this simmer, all of it
Higher than the jet, got stripped to my head and I'm addicted Hey just know I understand
The world is in your hands
But all your love love love is for me
They're falling at your feet
They chase you down the street
But I'm all you wa-wa-want So hey, hey Mr. President
You're such a gentlemen

It's such an honor to meet ya
Hey, hey Mr. President
I'll be ya Marilyn
I'll be ya Marilyn
And baby And baby
And baby And baby
Oh Mr President You want my cherry sweet kiss
Marking your lips
Just take what I give
That look of lust in your face
Your hands in my waist
There's not to lust So hey, hey Mr. President
It's such an honor to meet ya
I'll be ya Marilyn
And baby I'll never leave ya Hey Mr President
And baby And baby
Oh Mr President
And baby And baby
Oh Mr President I want your love
I need your loving
Come on get in the sun
I want your love
I need your loving
