

Not Your Birthday

Allstar Weekend

Every clock is ticking faster
Taking trips around the sun
Another Year, Another Chapter
5, and 4, and 3, and 2, and 1 Drop Your Calls, Lose your keys
(Before The Drinks Are Gone)
Get yourself out your seat
(OWH OWH)
Quit your bitching, Move your feet
(Until the break of dawn)
'Cause nobody gives a damn about the day that you were born
This song's for everyone who it aint your birthday
Ya gotta party like it's not, party like it's not
This song's for anyone that's having the worst day
Ya gotta party like it's not, party like it's not

OH AH OH

Party like it's not, party like it's
Like it's not your Birthday!
Party Like it's not, party like it's not
OH AH OH

Party like it's not, party like it's
Like it's not your Birthday!
Party like it's not, party like it's not
OH AH OH Take a mo-moment of the good life
Chase it down until you fall
Three hundred and sixty five nights
Why just one if we can have 'em all?
Drop Your Calls, Lose your keys
(Before The Drinks Are Gone)
Get yourself out your seat
(OWH OWH)
Clap your hands, Move your feet
(Until the break of dawn)

'Cause nobody gives a damn about the day that you were born This song's for everyone who it aint your birthday

Ya gotta party like it's not, party like it's not
This song's for anyone that's having the worst day
Ya gotta party like it's not, party like it's not OH AH OH Party like it's not, party like it's Like it's not your Birthday!
Party Like it's not, party like it's not
OH AH OH
Party like it's not, party like it's

Like it's not your Birthday!
Party like it's not, party like it's not

Get down, get loud, everybody stand up
Everybody go nuts, throw your hands up
Ok everybody now here's the plan
We're gonna dance until we cannot stand
Move your feet to every beat
Bump back, bring it back
