

I Be Missing You

Lenny Williams

Intro Music

V1: Yesterday about half past noon
I saw you walking down the street
I hid my face behind my hands
Cause I didn't want our eyes to meet
I wanted to call out your name
Girl I felt so ashamed
Cause of the things I used to do
And the way I treated you
If I could turn back the hands of time
Girl you know you'd still be mine
You stayed in my life for a week
And now I need pills to sleep

Bridge: Cause I be (I be)

I be (I be)

I be missing you (ohhh)

I be (I be)

I be (oh I be)

I be missing you

Refrain: I be missing, missing you, missing you ,missing you

I be missing, missing you ,missing you, missing you

V2: You don't miss your water

Til the well runs dry

I heard the saying over and over

Since I was two feet high

I wish I knew back then

What I know right now

But my head was much too hard

Won't no way no how

Maya Angelou asked

Why'd the caged bird sings

I'm sure you know the answer

Since you heard freedom ring

I took your love for granted

Always leaving you behind

And now that you don't want me no more

I'm about to lose my mind

Bridge: Cause I be (I be)

I be (I be)

I be missing you (heyyyy)

I be (I be)

I be (oh I be)

I be missing you (hey)
Refrain: I be missing, missing you, missing you, missing you
I be missing, missing you, missing you, missing you
V3: Girl I (girl I)
I, I, I sho' be missing you
I miss the way you get up early in the morning
You walking through the house
With your, with your house coat on Girl you, you know you be turning me on
And I, I miss the way you used to dance
When you put your B.B. King records on Girl you be moving, ooh just the way I like it girl
I, I be missing you
And early on Sunday morning you wake me up and tell me
It's time to get up and go to church
And, and give thanks to the Lord
And I, I, I be (I be)
Sho' be missing you (heyyyyy)
Refrain: I be missing, missing you, missing you, missing you (I ain't afraid to tell you girl {not ashamed})
I be missing, missing you, missing you, missing you (I said I ain't afraid to tell you baby)
I be missing, missing you, missing you, missing you (I ain't afraid to tell you baby)
I be missing, missing you, missing you, missing you (I be missing you)
Outro: Yeah, yeah girl you know I be missing you
Better come on back to me
