

Burn Slow

Ro James

Oohh... Shit
How you wanna feel?
Do you want it raw?
Do you want it real?
Ima give it to ya
Ima give it to ya real honest
Yeah...
You ain't never had it like this before
Roll in my sheets while we rolling paper
Trying to get you higher than them scrapers
Catching vibes, catching vapors
You should call in sick
You should call in favors
I promise...
You ain't never had it like this before
So don't you lie
Don't you tell me that you gotta go to work baby
Cause I can pay you for the whole week in bed
I just wanna get lost with you
That mean you belong to me
I wanna wake up Waking up to you in the morning
It's better than sunrise
So we can keep the curtains closed
Just light a few more candles and burn em' slow Baking up with you in the morning
Trying to get a little rewind
Cause I ain't really ready to let you go
No no no no no No no no
Just light a few more candles and burn em' slow
Oohh... Shit
Girl that Honey Jack put us on our back
When we on our back we get back to that action
Pour up Pour up
And let us take another round down
So we can get in another round .. Yeah
I don't need no breakfast 'less it's you on my face (Then we wake and we bake)
Waking up to you in the morning
It's better than sunrise
So we can keep the curtains closed
Just light a few more candles and burn em' slow Baking up with you in the morning
Trying to get a little rewind
Cause I ain't really ready to let you go
No no no no no No no no

Just light a few more candles and burn em' slow
Cause I ain't really ready to let you go
No no no no no
Then we wake and we bake
Waking up to you in the morning
So we can keep the curtains closed
Keep em' closed
Let's burn baby
Baking up with you in the morning
Rewind
Rewind
I just wanna get lost with you
No no no no no
No no no
Just light a few more candles and burn em' slow
Ooh Shit
