

What I Know Now (feat. Wiz Khalifa)

THEY.

[Intro]

You still hear every word that they say, but
These days they ain't making no sound
You still had me thinking that I'm crazy
Wish I knew then what I know now [Verse 1]
You don't know what I been through
So who are you to judge me? (judge me)
Still don't know if I believe if there's anything above me (let's go) I've been numb for so long, wanna feel something
Look in the mirror, I don't like who I'm becoming
I don't know my place
I done lost my way
Think that I won't break
I don't know my place
I done lost my way
Think that I won't break

[Chorus]

You still hear every word that they say, but
These days they ain't making no sound
You still had me thinking that I'm crazy
Wish I knew then what I know now (wish I knew)
Nobody really knows how I keep it all inside
You still have me thinking I'm crazy
This feeling's getting old now
Wish I knew then what I know now [Verse 2: Wiz Khalifa]
Uh, know how to circle out
Know how to move when they doubt
Know what to choose when I'm moving around
Say you through with them clowns
But you still fuckin' 'round with them
Every now and then, in my DM
See the different cars I be in Most of the time I just be with them once, and don't call 'em again
But for you I play it safe, don't know why
I ain't used to using brakes, once I close the door you can't escape
Putting KK in a plain, different strains
Got her feeling different things
Niggas talk, still ain't the gang
I like bigger planes
Glasses of gin, bottles of champagne
Diamond chains, bitches knowin' my name
Is you leaving or staying?

[Chorus]

You still hear every word that they say, but
These days they ain't making no sound (uh)
You still have me thinking I'm crazy (yeah)

Wish I knew then what I know now
Nobody really knows how I keep it all inside

You still have me thinking I'm crazy

This feeling's getting old now

Wish I knew then what I know now [Outro]
Nobody really knows how I keep it all inside

This feeling's getting old now

Wish I knew then what I know now
