

My Bleeding Victim

Communic

Where am I now?
Have I turned blind?
Broken down by the guilt of my killing hand My bleeding victim
Folds her hands and prays
My bleeding victim
Folds her hands and prays The morning rise the sky burns red
Sheets are soaked by unknown blood and soil
Memories burn - I crawl in pain
The scene i see is becoming more surreal Beyond the veil - Stalking my prey
Beyond control - I'm on my way
Drawn into the centre of the weak
Madness flares withing my angry mind
Alone in the maze where voices speak
In twisted tongues that taunt for evil deeds Beyond the veil - Stalking my prey
Beyond control - Unveil my pain I feel the blood slowly flow
In a reflecting eye I see them die
Heartbeat that silently decays
Sinking deep into the Earths hungry soil I will return
Same face
With a new mask
Trying to hide
From the guilt
of my killing hand
My bleeding victim
Folds her hands and prays
My bleeding victim
Folds her hands and..... prays
While the blood slowly flow
In a reflecting eye I see them die
Heartbeat that silently decays
Sinking deep into the Earths hungry soil Drawn into the centre of the weak
Madness flares withing my angry mind
Alone in this maze where voices speak
In twisted tongues that taunt for evil deeds Beyond the veil - I'm on my way
Beyond control - Stalking my pray
Beyond the veil - I'm on my way
Beyond control - Unveil my pain
