

Gravity

Daughtry

[Verse 1]

Escape the noise to find a voice
What kind of sound that I need
Life in a familiar place
What fills the void that we need[Pre-Chorus]
Breathing with no air
Can't, hear my echoes, when
I scream out, I'm craving gravity
I'm not gonna shipwreck, and (?)
Stranded with no land in sight
I need an anchor, my gravity

[Chorus]

Even though we're not in same sun when I fall
Don't have to be miles apart if you're here in my heart
I can feel your love from a different place, that's okay
Don't have to be miles apart if you're here in my heart[Verse 2]
Embrace the strange, close to sane
I don't belong here anyway
And passing by[?] or visiting
And out the gate, you're soothing[Pre-Chorus]
Breathing with no air
Can't hear my echoes, when
I scream out, I'm craving gravity

[Chorus]

Even though we're not in the same sun when I fall
Don't have to be miles apart if you're here in my heart
I can feel your love from a different place, that's okay
Don't have to be miles apart if you're here in my heart (x3)[Outro]
(Not gonna shipwreck and [?] stranded with no land in sight)
Don't have to be miles apart if you're here in my heart
(Not gonna shipwreck and [?] stranded with no land in sight)
Don't have to be miles apart if you're here

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>