

Alphaville

The Monochrome Set

(Alphaville) She slits her senseless skin
(Alphaville) In time to Fred Astaire (Alphaville) I know you're always there (Don't look now) She's so debonair, she's a manic depressive
(Don't look now) She's a millionaire, and her bills are excessive (Alphaville) She feels her senses wane
(Alphaville) In pleasant melody
(Alphaville) I'll take you now with me (Don't look now) She's a movie star, she's a split personality
(Don't look now) She's got oom-pah-pah, and Papa says it's insanity
Don't look now, your mind's deteriorating
Don't look now, and if it's irritating
I'll know how to set it right again (Don't look now, your world's collapsing, dear
Don't look now, and if it's taxing, dear
I'll know how to put it back again
(Alphaville) She sleeps in useless flesh
(Alphaville) The rancid, blood-soaked breast (Alphaville) In sunlight and slow death (Don't look now) She's a movie star, she's a little bit touched
(Don't look now) She's so wunderbar, all gears and no clutch
