

I'm the Man, That Will Find You

Connan Mockasin

Hey, I never get it all right, get it all right
Be my baby, and I will wait you all night, wait you all night long
Be a minute, I've been waiting long for you, you know
You be my baby, cause I can wait it long time I-I'm the man that will find you holding back until the end of day
I-I'm the man that will find you
Holding back until the end of day
I-I'm the man that will find you Hey, I never get it all right, all
You be my baby, cause I've been waiting long for you - you know
Gee, i never gonna hide those legs - so yeah
You be my baby, cause I can wait it long time
I-I'm the man that will find you
Holding back until the end of day
I-I'm the man that will find you
Holding back until the end of day
I-I'm the man that will find you
Holding back until the end of day
I-I'm the man that will find you Listen to your heart, when feels right from the start
You're acting kind of strange, new hope is for the past
Listen to your head
When you're dragging everywhere I-I'm the man that will find you
I-I'm the man that will find you
I-I'm the man that will find you
I-I'm the man that will find you
I will love you
I'm the man that will find you
I will love you baby
I'm the man that will find you
I will lo-oooove you
I'm the man that will find you
I-I-I-I love you-uuu
I'm the man that will find you
