

My Hallelujah Song

Julianne Hough

Look at me
Cant believe I finally made it here
Feeling like I'm where I belong Singing my hallelujah songHard to find,
took some time
But I that I might be hitting,
on whats been missing all along singing my hallelujah songIts a highway sliding through a Sunday avenue.
Its a snapshot smiling,
like we ain't got nothing to lose Its the peace in knowing, that the earth
Is gonna be gone someday.
But you only get more,
when you give it away.Look at me
Cant believe I finally made it here
Feeling like I'm where I belong
singing my hallelujah songHard to find,
took some time
But I that I might be hitting,
on whats been missing all along
singing my hallelujah song
Its a sweet prayer.
knowing someone's up
There hearing me
Its a punchline,
take a little time, but I giving inLife is more than,
how many breaths you take.
The moments that take you're breath away.
Baby take my breath away!Look at me
Cant believe I finally made it here
Feeling like I'm where I belong
yeah yeahHard to find,
took some time
But I never was by myself
There were angels, helping me all alongsinging my hallelujah song my hallelujah

singing my hallelujah song
oh oh yeahh
oh oh yeahh
