

The War

Leeland

Intro

The Lord is my Shepherd

I shall not want

You lead me in the paths of Your righteousness

In these green pastures

I'll sing a song

I will fear no evil in life or death Though my enemies rise against me

I know that You are with me

I know that You are always for me Your Fighting all my battles

So I'm standing in Your victory

You prepare a table

In the presence of my enemies

You've already won the war

The Lord is my warrior

My sun and shield

Your Word is the sword

That shatters fear

You watch over me

And count my steps

Your love and affection so furious Your voice thunders from the heavens

Breaking through this desert

Shouting I am your defender Your Fighting all my battles

So I'm standing in Your victory

You prepare a table

In the presence of my enemies

You've already won the war

The battle's not mine but Yours

The battle's not mine but Yours

The battle's not mine but Yours

The battle's not mine but Yours

The battle's not mine but Yours

The battle's not mine but Yours

The battle's not mine but Yours Your Fighting all my battles

So I'm standing in Your victory

You prepare a table

In the presence of my enemies

You've already won the war
