

Long Way Home

Endeverafter

3 a.m. and sleep must be the last thing on my mind
How did it get so late so fast, it still feels like last night
Thinking about that sunrise as I turn the keys and drive
Thinking about the last time that I really felt alive Staring blankly at that road that stretches far ahead

I don't know when I'll get back, or when I even left
Think of lines and dreams and drives and hives that I just met
All along my eyes they burn while dreaming of my bed And it's a long way home
Another long day gone

Oh, wont you take me home
Won't ya Morning strums the chaos dies and still I feel a mix
I can't recall what home feels like or if it still exists
And this long drive is suicide that never finishes
Think of life through every mile and I still smell her skin
Now I'm losing track of time in here the suns about to rise
Thinking how these moments are the soundtracks to our lives
And I can't wait to taste the air of California skies
Take me home to all my own, the home that I can't find And it's a long way home
Another long day gone

Oh wont you take me home
Take me home Running back into that place from where I ran away
Breathing every moment in that soon the time will take
Think of all the scars; the stars, the hearts I had to break
One day I will find the time I never had to take And it's a long way home
Another long day gone
And it's a long way home
Another long day gone
And it's a long way home
Another long day gone
And it's a long way home
Another long day gone
And it's a long way home
Another long day gone
And it's a long way home
Another long day gone
And it's a long way home
Another long day gone
Oh, wont you take me home
