Long Way Home

Endeverafter

3 a.m. and sleep must be the last thing on my mind
How did it get so late so fast, it still feels like last night
Thinking about that sunrise as I turn the keys and drive
Thinking about the last time that I really felt aliveStaring blankly at that road that stretches far ahead

I don't know when I'll get back, or when I even left
Think of lines and dreams and drives and hives that I just met
All along my eyes they burn while dreaming of my bedAnd it's a long way home

Another long day gone

Oh, wont you take me home

Won't yaMorning strums the chaos dies and still I feel a mix I can't recall what home feels like or if it still exists

And this long drive is suicide that never finishes

Think of life through every mile and I still smell her skin

Now I'm losing track of time in here the suns about to rise

Thinking how these moments are the soundtracks to our lives

And I can't wait to taste the air of California skies

Take me home to all my own, the home that I can't findAnd it's a long way home

Another long day gone

Oh wont you take me home

Take me homeRunning back into that place from where I ran away Breathing every moment in that soon the time will take

Think of all the scars; the stars, the hearts I had to break

One day I will find the time I never had to takeAnd it's a long way home

Another long day gone

And it's a long way home

Another long day gone

And it's a long way home

Another long day gone

And it's a long way home

Another long day gone

And it's a long way home

Another long day goneOh, wont you take me home
