

Devil In a Midnight Mass

Billy Talent

Yeah A devil in a midnight mass
He prayed behind stained glass
A memory of Sunday class
Resurrected from the past Hold your breath and count to four
Pinky swears don't work no more
Footsteps down the hallway floor
Getting closer to my door
I was alive, but now I'm singing (Silent night) For the rest of my life
(Silent night) For the rest of my life
(Violent knight) At the edge of your knife
("Forgive me Father") Won't make it right
(Silent night) For the rest of my life
(Silent knight) At the edge of your knife
You're guilty!
A devil in a midnight mass
Killed the boy inside the man
The holy water in his hands
Can never wash away his sins Hold your breath and count to four
Pinky swears don't work no more
Put my trust in God that day
Not the man that taught his way
I was alive, but now I'm singing (Silent night) For the rest of my life
(Silent night) For the rest of my life
(Violent knight) At the edge of your knife
("Forgive me Father") Won't make it right
(Silent night) For the rest of my life
(Silent knight) At the edge of your knife
You're guilty!
Whisper, whisper don't make a sound
Your bed is made, it's in the ground
Whisper, whisper don't make a sound
Your bed is made, it's in the ground
Whisper, whisper don't make a sound
Your bed is made it's in the ground
Whisper, whisper don't make a sound
Your bed is made it's in the ground
Whisper, whisper don't make a sound
Your bed is made and it's in the ground
