

Piece of Me

Pryde

so many things, i want to say and i'm in a game, that i shouldn't play but fck what they say, if they're in the way they gon' have to move along
they don't want to face my power they don't want a piece of me
they don't want a piece of meokay, hated by many but been amazing to plenty my record stadium wembley i got the face of the century my friends don't call me, forget 'em he got a broad in your spectrum why do these broads want to sx him cause' he walks like a legend yeah the swag is belated but all these bstrds outdated and yea them tties ain't huge but, girl, that ss is amazing so make it pop pop for me the only way it can btch do it with no hands, i'm the motherfcking man, yeah money make it so my circle have a trust fund me versus everybody, you won't hear me saying fck some kings cross apartment to that rented home in brampton industry they tried to box me but this flow is everlasting screaming you don't want these issues they bread is artificial mr. worldwide pryde with this sht, no pitbull and my momma stay my angel still obnoxious with the dream making dollars that my mom won't ever see but you can tell her i got...so many things, i want to say
okay, hlla on they copying but i'm a threat to clones talking nonsense ain't an option on rosetta stone playa like del carmen but we ain't tourists in mexico they can't finish my series, i won't let them watch these episodes alright, looking like a milli in a safe they just have to take me out and go and spend me for a day used to beg momma for change to ride a bus and get a job i ain't get no job so i make gualla my only way jose, no way, the flow so coldplay and the boy got wings like its superbowl day tried to take my own life but i can't stop my [?] still get crazy stupid love the new ryan gosling they put ceilings over me they told me i wasn't worthy old man thinking cause i grew into this early you should look at my life, look at my times see that i've suffered through numerous counts of unfortune happenings baby we back again ain't no one better than i i got...

they don't want a piece of mei just raised my head put my hands up high it's my time to spread my wings wide
