

Tired

Stone Sour

I'm alive in here!
So alive in here!
Pull it down, a little piece! I'm open wide in here!
Slowly rising here!
Saving grace and killing me! You say this only makes me incomplete
I'll cancel out and render it obsolete!
Tell the Mad Chameleon he's not welcome anymore!
And I know what I'm looking for! Somewhere close
Somewhere safe
Somewhere I know, I know
I'll never live in chains!
The one is now aware
So stay away from me
I'm just too young to care! I can see in here
And I can feel in here
Common souls with common sense
I take my time in here
Somebody, get me outta here!
What am I so against? I just wanna watch the whole world burn
Lost a million times and I won't learn!
Show me someone innocent, I'll show you there's no proof
I may be calm, but I'm no fool! I'm not close!
I'm not safe!
I don't know, Don't know!
Am I better off in chains?
The one, is now aware
So stay away from me
I'm just too young to care!
I need somewhere close
Somewhere safe
Somewhere I know, I know
I'll never live in chains!
The one is now aware
So stay away from me
I'm just too young to care!
Too young to care!
