

Anyone Who Knows Me (feat. Kevin Olusola) [Remix]

Eric Hutchinson

One open book
A fresh start from a broken heart
And we do the best we can
Anyone who knows me
Knows you don't know me at all
Any love that's good comes easily
Anyone who knows you
Has got his back against the wall
But it's alright to cry
Ask anyone who knows me
He took your smile
And something more
The sun shines
In between the lines
Anyone who knows me
Knows you don't know me at all
Any love that's good comes easily
Anyone who knows you
Has got his back against the wall
But it's alright to cry
Ask anyone who knows me
I said it's alright to cry
Ask anyone who knows me
Anyone who knows you
Will tell you the hardest part
Is just keeping you around
Anyone who knows me
Will tell you the coldest heart
Can eventually melt down
And if you're gonna try, try with me
Anyone who knows me
Knows you don't know me at all
Any love that's good comes easily
Anyone who knows you
Has got his back against the wall
But it's alright to cry
Ask anyone who knows me
