

Figures, a Reprise (feat. Daniel Caesar)

Jessie Reyez

[Verse 1: Jessie Reyez]

Figures

I'm the bad guy cause I can't learn to trust

Love figures

You say sorry once and you think it's enough

I got a lineup of girls and a lineup of guys

Begging for me just to give 'em a try

I'm willing to stay

Cause I'm sick for your love

[Chorus: Jessie Reyez]

I wish I could hurt you back

Love, what would you do if you couldn't get me back

You're the one who's gonna lose

Something so special, something so real

Tell me boy, how in the fuck would you feel?

If you couldn't get me back

That's what I wish that I could do to you, you

To you, you [Verse 2: Daniel Caesar]

Wish that I could help myself, give my love to someone else

Stuck to you, you turn me to a fool

Worried 'bout my mental health, all the pain that I've done felt

Knocked me right off my own pedestal

I got a cup full of whiskey, 150

Reasons to leave, I just pray that you'll miss me

Figures

I'm sick for your love, I just can't get enough

[Chorus: Jessie Reyez, Daniel Caesar, Both]

I wish I could hurt you back

Wish I could hurt you back

Love, what would you do if you couldn't get me back

If you couldn't get me back, yeah

You're the one who's gonna lose

Something so special, something so real

Tell me boy, how in the fuck would you feel?

Tell me, girl, how in the fuck would you feel?

If you couldn't get me back

You couldn't get me back

That's what I wish that I could do to you, you

To you, you [Outro: Jessie Reyez]

Yeah, figures
