

Angel In the Swamp

Story of the Year

OHHHH!In this home - quiet the sin
Violence is known
Only by the ones who bare these walls
She is saint - hiding it all Underneath her smile - her soul is shamedCuz a fathers hands speak a thousand words of what he thinks of her
With the sound of her breaking down one day -
When the pain is gone she will finally know, she is not alone
But the sound of her breaking down seems never-ending nowOHHHH!
The worst is over
Yeah the worst is over
Yeah the worst is over now
For so long - she holds the blame
She bares the curse
Weighing down on everything she knows
Honor betrayed - taken away
Even now the brightest star - will fadeCuz a fathers hands speak a thousand words of what he thinks of her
With the sound of her breaking down one day -
When the pain is gone she will finally know, she is not alone
But the sound of her breaking down seems never-ending nowOHHHH!
The worst is over
Yeah the worst is over
Yeah the worst is over nowShe's alone
She's alone
She's alone
NOW!
Cuz a fathers hands speak a thousand words of what he thinks of her
With the sound of her breaking down one day -
When the pain is gone she will finally know, she is not alone
But the sound of her breaking down seems never-ending nowYeah, seems never-ending nowOHHHH!
Now the worst is over
Yeah the worst is over
Yeah the worst is over
No!NOOOOOOOO!NOOOOOOOOOOOOOO!NO!
