Baby, have you got no soul? Is your heart a gaping hole? How come I didn't see that in you? Oh How come I can forgive you?And if you loved me, you'd never do this N oho, if you loved me, you wouldn't put me through itThat makes you a killer, a killer, a killer That makes you a killer, a killer, a killerForever is for dreamers (for dreamers) And it's foolish to not know you're a schemer It's silly to think of our unborn children 'Cause all I'm thinking about right now is how I'll never know themAnd if you loved me, you would never do this Our futures battered and bloody It's so fucking ruthless That makes you a killer, a killer, a killer That makes you a killer, a killer, a killer That makes you a killer, a killer, a killer That makes you a killer, that makes you a killer Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941.
