River Styx

Black Rebel Motorcycle Club

Will you lay me down
Will you lay me down
Will you lay me down inside heaven's walls
Where every soul is a setting sunWill you take my hand

Will you take my hand

Will you take my hand down to the water's edge Where every sin has been washed awayBut I can't run if I can't walk

And I won't love if I can't stop

Every minute the pressure drops

From your first breath 'til your heart stopsWill you let them pass Will you let them pass

Will you let them pass across this killing floor Where every shadow is cast in stoneBut I can't run if I can't walk

And I won't love if I can't stop Every minute the pressure drops

From your first breath 'til your heart stops

Carry me

Carry me

But you take

Take

It's never enough

You just take

Take

It's never enough

You just take

Take

Every part of me

All of me
