

Breach Birth

Chevelle

Be brave reshape
Can't force all into molds
Passing out schematics
Forcing all into molds Once more about to change
Some try and fall beneath molds Well it's your right so
I'll keep on this path
Turning around bending the shapes
Cutting it in
We could excel beyond
The latter fools
Start a new tone
Hating the same
Empty the room
So create, reclaim
Sovereign shapes tempting us
Ration out, their schematics
Dare we live without molds
So far what's left between
They tried and fail beneath molds Well it's your right so
I'll keep on this path
Turning around bending the shapes
Cutting it in
We could excel beyond
The latter fools
Start a new tone
Hating the same
Empty the room
Feel locked in a room
And starting to choke
Enticing the shame
Awaken a world our own Well it's your right so
I'll keep on this path
Turning around bending the shapes
Cutting it in
We could excel beyond
The latter fools
Start a new tone
Hating the same
Empty the room So create, reshape create reclaim
create reshape
