Sorry Love Daddy

Brian McFadden

It seems like only yesterday
I held you in my arms and said
You will never need to fear the darkBut unforeseen misery has come
Between your Mummy and me
We can love you more, now we're apartDaddy, he's got to go away
'Cos there's just no other way
To live this throughSomeday you'll learn to understand
This wasn't what I planned
For me and you
Sorry, love Daddy
Everyday is filled with pain
But never feel that you're to blame
Sometimes life breaks
In mysterious waysI can make it up to you
Believe me, I am trying to
No matter what
You'll always be my babiesDaddy, he's got to go away
'Cos there's just no other way
To live this throughSomeday you'll learn to understand
This wasn't what I planned
For me and you
Sorry, love DaddyDaddy, he's got to go away
'Cos there's just no other way
To live this through
Someday you'll learn to understand
This wasn't what I planned
For me and you
Sorry, love DaddyI'm sorry, love Daddy
