

Blue and the Grey

Parkway Drive

Dear sky...Dear sky, don't cry for me (cry for me...),
Be the hope I could never reachCold sea, please don't let me sink (don't let me sink...),
Wrap your arms around me and carry me homeI stood at the shore and spoke to the ocean
I stood in the water and let my guts spill

I said

"You and me, we're not so different,
I see my reflection in all that you do..."We both keep our secrets

We're both oh so blue

My heart is full of darkness

I know that yours is too

I sat on the rooftop and screamed at the sky

I sat on the edge until I knew deep inside

Like the sky, I will always be empty

The horizon, my love, forever just out of reachWe both keep our secrets

We're both oh so blue

My heart is full of darkness

I know that yours is tooDistance was born when the sea and the sky grew apart

Loneliness was born the day I let you... go!

I let you go!I let you...

I— let— you

I let you go!

I— let— you

I let you goooo!I let you go...

So now I stand at the shore and speak to the ocean

I stand in the water and let, let my guts spill

Let my guts spill!We both keep our secrets

We're both oh so blue

My heart is full of darkness

I know...

I know that yours is too!

Dear sky...

Dear sky, don't cry for me (cry for me...)

Be the hope I could never reach

Cold sea, please don't let me sink (don't let me sink...)

Wrap your arms around me and carry me home

Dear sky!
