

Carry On

Martin Jensen & Molow

Sometimes I wish I wasn't honest
And keep my feelings to myself
Was such a sucker for your promise
But now I'm done with feelin' hurt I carry on, on, on
With my song, song, song
I'm so done, done, done
With your love, love, love
I'll be strong, strong, strong
And it won't be long
Till I'm shinin' bright
On my own (own, own)
I carry on, on, on
With my song, song, song
I'm so done, done, done
With your love, love, love
I'll be strong, strong, strong
And it won't be long
Till I'm shinin' bright
On my own, own, own I carry on, on, on
With my song, song, song
I'm so done, done, done
With your love, love, love
And I'll be strong, strong, strong
And it won't be long
Till I'm shinin' bright
On my own, own, own
At times you really feel the pressure
And it keeps mountin' on your chest
Each moment keeps on gettin' deeper
You start to feel like someone else
Believe in happy ever-after
Don't let nobody cause you pain
You are the key to your desire
The world awaits for your embrace I carry on, on, on
With my song, song, song
I'm so done, done, done
With your love, love, love
I'll be strong, strong, strong
And it won't be long
Till I'm shinin' bright
On my own (own, own) I carry on, on, on
With my song, song, song

I'm so done, done, done
With your love, love, love
And I'll be strong, strong, strong
And it won't be long
Till I'm shinin' bright
On my own, own, own I carry on, on, on
With my song, song, song
I'm so done, done, done
And it won't be long
Till I'm shinin' bright
