

Teen Scene (feat. Buddy)

Maeta

MAETA FEAT. BUDDY - TEEN SCENE
I grew up in housing trucks
Felt like Summer when all the kids were out
Not old enough to light up yet
Still did behind the house
Girl I fell too far away
The opposite too close
You lie to your parents, to come see me
And say you love me, so I'm the one who you would lie to most
You are backwards
You act like it's for me
Hmm, hmm
So I left you in the teen scene
I did that for you
But I'm still backward
Soon again, I'm deep up in your waters
Live life just like you taught it
Tables turned, you got my plate
At least I'd do the same, that shit
Woo, ooh, ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh, hmm-hmm, hmm-hmm
Woo, ooh, ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh, hmm-hmm, hmm-hmm
Lil' ghetto, nigga plottin' on some better livin'
Big money, told my momma I ain't settlin'
Plot thickens everytime I get, get it, got it
Keep shit flippin', 'til the clock quit tickin', I get Incentives for sin, he sin, sinnin'
The devil is a lie, father God is forgivin'
Baby on my mind but I'm always on a mission
Tryna get another six figures
Girl you know you love me, just admit it
Yeah I love you too but I be trippin'
Had a little trouble with committin'
I was raised different, places I've been they won't visit
Things we did, I won't mention
Things you said, I won't forget it
I don't regret it, forever indebted, we got here together
Whole other level
Now we just get better and better, when I'm in the city they call me a legend, yeah
Used to hang behind the trucks
Addin' two graffiti on the walls
Drank with you despite the taste
Now for everything I turn to alcohol
Oh, I'm the saddest popular
And soon he'll be
You lie to your parents, to come see me
And say you love me, so I'm the one who you would lie to most
You are backwards

You act like it's for me
 Hmm, hmm
So I left you in the teen scene
 I did that for you
But I'm still backward Soon again, I'm deep up in your waters
 Live life just like you taught it
 Tables turned, you got my plate
 At least I'd do the same, that shit
 Woo, ooh, ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh, hmm-hmm, hmm-hmm
Woo, ooh, ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh, hmm-hmm, hmm-hmm I should've never lie (That's my bad, that's my bad, my bad)
 I should've told the truth (That's my bad, that's my bad, my bad, my bad)
We can do it 'til we get it right (That's my bad, that's my bad, my bad, my bad)
 It's all for you
