

Sorry

Meg Myers

My heart is wasted
And cut up like a drug
And your tears they taste like Vinegar and blood
And these conversations Choke us 'til we're numb
No matter what we say
It never seems enough
So take me to the start, and take me to that kiss
'cause I gotta know, baby,
what I'll forget
Sorry that I lost our love without a reason why
Sorry that I lost our love
it really hurts sometimes
And I'm sorry, sorry
What do you want
what do you want me to say?
Sorry that I lost our love
Until the end of time
My voice is twisted guilty goes the tongue Your eyes are faded that used to turn me on And our skin is dangerous villains when we touch No matter what we feel it never feels enough
So take me to the start
Take me to that kiss
'Cause I gotta know, baby
what I'll forget
without a reason why
it really hurts sometimes
And I'm sorry, sorry
What do you want
what do you want me to say
Until the end of time
without a reason why

what do you want from me?
So, sorry, sorry
what do you want me to say?
what do you want me to say?
