

Tremble (From Internet Only Release "Artifakt")

Better Than Ezra

(Written by Kevin Griffin)

(Transcribed by Ferlen David III)

Well I'm watchin' Geraldo on TV

And I'm thinkin' about you and me

About you and me But ya talk too much

And ya say too little

And ya think too hard

You were gonna tremble

Yet ya talk too much

And ya say too little

And ya think too hard

You were gonna tremble

Well you're dancing with the pole-ends and us(?)

And I'm thinkin' about you and me

About you and me But ya talk too much

And ya say too little

And ya think too hard

You were gonna tremble

Yet ya talk too much

And ya say too little

And ya think too hard

You were gonna tremble I believe in

I believe this thing

I can't take it anymore

This could be the end of something

This could be the start of something new

This could be the end of something...

Well I'm watchin' Geraldo on TV

And I'm thinkin' about you and me

About you and me But ya talk too much

And ya say too little

And ya think too hard

You were gonna tremble

Yet ya talk too much

And ya say too little

And your mouth is dry

You were gonna tremble Yet ya talk too much

And ya say too little

And your eyes are wide

You were gonna tremble
