

Loosen' Control (feat. Butch Cassidy)

Snoop Dogg

Man, you got me goin' crazy, girl
Feel like I'm losin' my mind Feels like I'm losin' control and I don't even know
Girl, you hurt me, oh, so bad 'cause I love you so, hey
But it don't matter now, I'm doin' better now
Whatever you do, bitch, will come back to you, bitch(Hey, hey)
I was in love at times
I was so hurt, she made me forget my rhymes
(Hey, hey)(Hey, hey)
I was in love at times
I was so hurt, she made me forget my rhymes
(Hey, hey, hey)
Now, who would ever think that I wanted a home
Three kids and a wife, never be alone?
A dog in the front yard and that picket fence
Havin' somethin' on the side? It didn't make sense I'm a family man sportin' a weddin' band I heard them, niggas, on your pager, didn't give a damn
I gave you eighty percent of all my trust in you
The other twenty was cool 'cause we gon' make it through The homies said she got my mind blew in, blew in I told that nigga like Chris Tucker
"Don't worry about what the fuck I be doin'"
We was makin' chemistry but who is he?
And how dis nigga, know the deal about you and me? I fell to my knees and asked the girl,
"Why?"
She looked at my eyes with no reply
So I cried, I was in love at times
I was so hurt, she made me forget my rhymes
Feels like I'm losin' control and I don't even know
Girl, you hurt me, oh, so bad 'cause I love you so, hey
But it don't matter now, I'm doin' better now
Whatever you do, bitch, will come back to you, bitch(Hey, hey)
I was in love at times
I was so hurt, she made me forget my rhymes
(Hey, hey)(Hey, hey)
I was in love at times
I was so hurt, she made me forget my rhymes
(Hey, hey, hey) I was in love at times
They say, "Game Don't Wait", huh, Warren G?
Well the game better wait for me
I'm spendin' my time while I'm writin' these rhymes In the Hills for real, sippin' wines, girl, you'se a dime
Got me losin' my mind
Well, if lovin' you is a crime

I'm down to do my time
Lock me up and throw away the key
I once told that, "This was the way love was meant to be"
I see you with me forever
We can do things that you never, thought you could
Up, out the hood, uh, is where I took you, never overlooked you
I can't believe that you shook to another spot
And left me cold, now I'm hot
I'm tryin' to find you, what am I to do?
I gave you everything that you needed
Feels like I'm losin' control and I don't even know
(Took it for granted, shit, I'm cool now)
Girl, you hurt me, oh, so bad 'cause I love you so, hey
(What goes around, comes around)
But it don't matter now, I'm doin' better now
Whatever you do, bitch, will come back to you, bitch
(Hey, hey)
I was in love at times
(Hey, hey)
I was in love at times
(Hey, hey)
I was in love at times
You know what, girl, I mean
I was in love with you and you did me like that
But you know what they say?
What goes around comes around
How could, how could, you do me wrong? Me wrong
You be messin' up my songs, my songs
Now a nigga must move on, I gave you
Gave love and you just, straight played on me, on me
Had a nigga sick for weeks, for weeks
Now I must begin my streak, I was in love at times
