

Free Your Dreams (feat. Chantae Cann)

Snarky Puppy

I'm ready to live this thing called life
I'm take'n it one day at a time
Won't let the bad moments change my mind
I'm free'n my dreams from deep inside And I'm not try'n to be something I'm not
I'm just try'n to use, use what I got
Over time you'll see that I may get a little bit weak
But it don't mean that I still don't have a dream So I say,
REACH UP & touch the sky, fly high
JUMP UP and kiss the sun, you've already won
LOOK UP but don't look back, you're on the right track
WAKE UP & free your dreams into reality
I'm take'n each moment as if it's my last
Don't wanna rush my lessons, no
Embrace'n my future, learning from my past
I'm count'n all my blessings OH OH OH And I'm not try'n to be something I'm not
I'm just try'n to use, use what I got
Over time you'll see that I may get a little bit weak
But it don't mean that I still don't have a dream So I say,
REACH UP & touch the sky, fly high
JUMP UP and kiss the Sun, you've already won
LOOK UP but don't look back, you're on the right track
WAKE UP & free your dreams into reality
FREE YOUR DREAMS
Look up
Reach up
Jump up
Wake up
