The Fountain (feat. Steven Wilson)

Pendulum

You sure, you're right? Well no, you're wrong. You don't feel my energy, But it won't be long. I see, the sun, Believe the dark. Soon I disappear, But I'll make my mark. All these fears And all this love, All you've given me -It's not enough. All my dreams And all this stuff -All made real And it's not enough. Watching, Waiting, Shaping, Faking, Shocking, Pumping, Mocking, Stopping, Falling, Stalling, Warning, Crawling, Rejecting, Perfecting, Marauding, Ending. Behind my eyes Is rage alone, But you don't understand It was all homegrown. I'm not afraid, I just don't belong. It may be cynical, But it all seems wrong. All these fears And all this love, All you've given me -It's not enough.
