

I Wanna Go Down With You

Russ

I wanna go down with you, baby
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Wanna pull the trigger with you
Oh
I wanna slow dance while they're screaming
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Wanna take you with me
Oh
You are all that I need
And you are all I believe
'Cause everything fine
'Cause you ain't gotta leave
I wanna go down, down, down, down, down with you
Yeah, she said love me when you're ready, not when you're lonely
I don't know myself, so there's no way you know me
But if I hold you down, then you better hold me
But if I call your bluff, then you better fold me
'Cause I can't risk it all for you
If you don't see that I'm all for you, oh You are all that I need
And you are all I believe
'Cause everything fine
'Cause you ain't gotta leave
I wanna go down, down, down, down, down with you Oh, bad girl
Why is everything going backwards?
Drinking, rolling up a couple Backwoods
Every day we argue, that's a bad look
Yeah, song in the key of hope, sing it for me
Cup full of love, drink it for me
I'd rather deal with oh well than what if
You got me addicted off of one hit
You are all that I need
And you are all I believe
'Cause everything fine
'Cause you ain't gotta leave
I wanna go down, down, down, down, down with you
