

Perfect Stranger

Civil Twilight

tonight i feel something over me something i can't change many nights i have spent sailing with many reasons to be bravebut tonight i feel my heart begin to fail and my head begin to fall like two ships crossing their paths i see you see like you wantmy perfect stranger don't sail away
it was meant to be
we met this way
we met this way
some many nights i've been in this place the winds haven't blown in seven days i turn to the stars and moon at night but the more i look
the more i lose sightand heaven knows heaven shows
pieces of the story
it's moments like these the treasures we must see so we can tell this storyoh my perfect stranger
don't sail away
tell me your secrets
and be on your way
hold me
go on and hold me
ooooh
cause there's no fear
there's no fear
there's no fearoooohmy perfect stranger arms opened wide to me
tell me your secrets
tell them onto meoooooh noooooi say hold me now
my perfect stranger
hold me now
my perfect stranger
