

Brand New

Drake

This here is on some truthful shit
It seems like everything I do, your used to it And I hate hearing stories bout who you've been with So then I gotta hide, what I'm feeling inside
So you still think I'm confident and damn
Is this gonna last? Your up on a pedastal
Are we moving too fast?
Feel like I'm in crazy competition with the past
Is why I gotta ask...is anything I'm doing brand new?
Brand new, brand new, brand new, brand new, brand new
is anything I'm doing brand new?
Brand new, brand new, brand new, brand new, brand new
This here is something personal
I highly doubt this feeling is reversible
Knowledge is pain and that is why it hurts to know
That you attempt to hide, and put mistakes aside
So I don't ever question you and damn
I cant even find, the perfect brush
So I can paint whats going through my mind
Racing against myself, but I'm a couple steps behind This why I gotta askis anything I'm doing brand new?
Brand new, brand new, brand new, brand new, brand new
is anything I'm doing brand new?
Brand new, brand new, brand new, brand new, brand newIs anything I'm doing brand (new)
Or is everything I'm doing too (late)
Did he take off your clothes off just like this Did he give you loving just like this Did you spend the night in his bed on the very first date
Tell me baby am I too late?
is anything I'm doing brand new?
Brand new, brand new, brand new, brand new, brand new Show me if this is brand new?
Brand new, brand new, brand new, brand new, brand new yeah, yeah yeah...
