

Your Love Will Blow Me Away When My Heart Aches

Son Little

When my heart aches I'm drowning
Pain won't go away
And in my cups brown fills my brain won't go away
These five yellow girls all on parade assphyxxiate
Still stuck in a cage tryna ply my trade won't go away
And I'm afraid
Yer love will blow me away
Am I dumb?
All cuz I numb the pain
Or am I just another runaway
When shadows creep across my floor won't go away
You've had enough but still want more won't go away
My engine gunning thunderbirds asphalt wanna race?
Still trapped in a box tryna clear my name won't go away
And I'm afraid
Yer love will blow me away
Am I dumb?
All cuz I numb the pain
Or am I just another runaway
Runaway
This afghan kush we're bubbling won't burn away
My moon my queen been gone since may so I lie awake
My easy death in ecstasy my hands still shake
When my heart aches I'm drowning pain won't go away
And I'm afraid
Yer love will blow me away
Am I dumb?
All cuz I numb the pain
And I'm afraid
Yer love will blow me away
Am I dumb?
All cuz I numb the pain
Or am I just another runaway
Runaway
