My World

Sick Puppies

I'm not comin' back I'm not gonna' react I'm not doin' shit for you I'm not sitting around While you're tearing it down around us I'm not living a lie While you swim in denial 'Cause you're already dead and gone You'll leave me out on the curb Just like everyone else before you Welcome to my world Where everyone I ever need Always ends up leaving me alone Another lesson burned And I'm drowning in the ashes Kicking

Screaming

Welcome to my worldI don't care what you think

I'm not seeing a shrink I'm not doing this again I'm not another Student or a mother To take your shit out on So let's see what you got And let's see what you're not And whatever else you pretend You've defended my intentions

Long enough

Welcome to my world Where everyone I ever need

Always ends up leaving me alone

Another lesson burned

And I'm drowning in the ashes

Kicking

Screaming

Welcome to my worldSo here I am again

In the middle of the end

And the choice I wish I'd made

I always make too lateWelcome to my world

Where everyone I ever need

Always ends up leaving me alone

Another lesson burned

And I'm drowning in the ashes

Kicking
Welcome to my worldMy world
My world (to my world)
My world
My world
My world, yeah)
My world
Welcome, baby!
