

Used to Be

Beach House

You are coming home are you still alone are you not the same as you used to be as the sun grows hot will you save your time does each day just feel like another life now you know that it is just for show just a foolish game that you hide behind don't forget the nights when it all felt right
are you not the same as you used to be
used to be
in an endless life would you feel the fright of an age that was and could never be so we hold it close with the finger post like a love that we could not leave behind we turn the wheel to each way we feel till our bones don't forget the nights when it all felt right are you not the same as you used to be
even if i tried so hard would we still be coming to an end even if we spoke the same words would we still be turned as friends even if it was simple from start with the pieces of a heart even if there is nothing left to tell we would know its coming to an end even if we tried so hard we would give the pieces of a heart its always good to see you again even if its coming to an end
