

The One

JMSN

Christian, can you hear me?
Are you awake?
I gotta tell you something Crossing a line that don't exist
Feel like the drugs are sinking in
You don't wanna sail against the wind
But I feel you're tide is pulling me in
Yeah, and I'm trying to make sense of it all Something tells me that this is right
Of all the things I could take away from you
Someone tell me if this is life
How could I have ever been so oblivious?
How could I have ever been so oblivious?
So cruel to be alive
And God would change our lives
So cruel to be alive
My one and only, come here Could you be? Could you be the one?
Could you be the one, be the one?
Could you be? Could you be the one?
Could you be the one, be the one? Do you love me?
Really, tell me
Do you love me? I'm trying to make sense of it all Something tells me that this is right
Of all the things I could take away from you
Someone tell me if this is life
How could I have ever been so oblivious?
How could I have ever been so oblivious?
So cruel to be alive
And God would change our lives
So cruel to be alive
My one and only, come here Could you be? Could you be the one?
Could you be the one, be the one?
Could you be? Could you be the one?
Could you be the one, be the one?
