

Love -> Building On Fire

Talking Heads

When my love
Stands next to your love,
I can't define love
When it's not love.It's not love.
It's not love.
Which is my face,
Which is a building,
Which is on fire.When my love
Stands next to your love,
I can't define love
When it's not love.
It's not love.
It's not love.
Which is my face,
Which is a building,
Which is on fire.I've got two loves
I've got two loves
And they go tweet, tweet, tweet, tweet, tweet, like little birds
They're my two loves...
Count them one, two loves...
Count them one, two loves.
Which is my face
Which is a building
Which is on fire
It's not love.
It's not love.
Which is my face,
Which is a building,
Which is on fire.
