Love -> Building On Fire

Talking Heads

When my love Stands next to your love, I can't define love When it's not love. It's not love. It's not love. Which is my face, Which is a building, Which is on fire. When my love Stands next to your love, I can't define love When it's not love. It's not love. It's not love. Which is my face, Which is a building, Which is on fire. I've got two loves I've got two loves And they go tweet, tweet, tweet, tweet, like little birds They're my two loves...

Count them one, two loves...

Count them one, two loves...

Which is my face

Which is a building

Which is on fire
It's not love.
It's not love.
Which is my face,

Which is a building, Which is on fire.
