

Fat Face

AWOLNATION

I walked to the rhythm of the rhythm of your heart
You ain't saying nothing 'til your mama falls apart
 But I'm awake
I've walked to the rhythm of the rhythm of your heart
 But I'm still bitter at the bullies in the park
But I will wait for you I walked to the rhythm of the rhythm of your heart
I'm casting a shadow but I'm down to play the part
 But I'm awake
I walked to the rhythm of the rhythm of the sea
 A memory full, but the soul is incomplete
 But I will wait for you
 No grace, faking on the floor
 Fat face, swallow me no more
 No grace, faking on the floor
 With this fat face, swallow me no more
 No grace, faking on the floor
 This fat face, swallow me no more
 No grace, faking on the floor
 With this fat face, swallow me no more
