

Evan's Song

Amy Wadge

Please pray, betray
Lay me in the water, wash my sins away
Forgive, forget
Someone in redemption but I'm not there yet
Lay hands on me
You will be the boat I will be the sea
All roads will lead
Back to the beginning where you still believe
All the river runs forever, never reaching home
And I will waddle in the undertone
Never let go, never let go
Still have faith in me
Never let go, never let go
I'll be coming home
Never let go, never let go
You are not alone
Never let go of me
I will never let go
If a life is real
Tell me how the living part is supposed to feel
I fail, I lose
Nothing but running in walking shoes
But I bring, but I learn
Running out in circles ain't a way to turn
But I win, we'll heal
All the broken down bridges that I left to burn
All the river runs forever, never reaching home
And I will waddle in the undertone
Never let go, never let go
Still have faith in me
Never let go, never let go
I'll be coming home
Never let go, never let go
You are not alone
Never let go of me
I will never let go
