Well I've been waiting for the right time to tell her how I feel I've been waiting so long to say what's on my mind
But I just don't think that she's gonna understand that we can watch this stupid movie while I hold her by the hand Stay up all night talking but we'll never get the chance so I wrote these words to make you understand (maybe you'll understand)
That I'll be stayin up all night waitin' for a phone call stayin' up all night prayin' that I don't fall madly in love with this girl who's gonna break my heart (she'll break my heart)
she's gonna break my heart (every time I see her)
she's gonna break my heart
(she'll break my heart)
She's gonna break my heart...
Well I guess it's the right time to tell her how I feel it's my one last shot to say what's on my mind
but I just don't think that she's gonna understand That I would drive all night just to see her for a day make another broken promise then she says that I can stay
so I wrote these words to make you understand (she's never gonna understand)
that I'll be stayin up all night waitin' for a phone call
stayin' up all night prayin' that I don't fall
madly in love with this girl who's gonna break my heart
(she'll break my heart)
she's gonna break my heart (every time I see her)
she's gonna break my heart
(she'll break my heart)
She's gonna break my heart... and every time I see her smilin' smile I think that maybe she has saved that one for me btu then I realize that I'm goin' crazy and maybe it's just my imagination workin' overtime workin' overtime on a girl who's gonna break my heart (she'll break my heart)
she's gonna break my heart (every time I see her)

she's gonna break my heart
(she'll break my heart)
She's gonna break my heart...
