

Go

Delilah

I've been waiting for you, it's been so long
I knew just what I would do when I heard your song
The next thing I told was you, hold me close
What am I gonna do, I let myself go Nothing left to say, take my breath away
Whispering your name
Tie me up in chains
No one puts it down like me Strength I could have known
Make me beg for more
Climbing up the walls, banging down the doors
Knowing that you hear my scream But ooh, your love's so cruel
You make wanna go, go, go, go, go, ooh
Ooh, all the things you do
You make me wanna go, go, go, go, go, ooh
Captured effortlessly, that's the way it was
Happened so naturally, I did not know it was love
You fill my heart with a kiss, you give me freedom
You knew I could not resist, I needed someone Nothing left to say, take my breath away
Whispering your name
Tie me up in chains
No one puts it down like me Strength I could have known
Make me beg for more
Climbing up the walls, banging down the doors
Knowing that you hear my scream But ooh, your love's so cruel
You make wanna go, go, go, go, go, ooh
Ooh, all the things you do
You make me wanna go, go, go, go, go, ooh
Because who are you? To make me hmm, hmm
And it's you, you, me and you go and you go But ooh, your love's so cruel
You make wanna go, go, go, go, go, ooh
Ooh, all the things you do
You make me wanna go, go, go, go, go, ooh
